UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

$49,000 IN UNITED STATES
CURRENCY,

Defendant.

JOSEPH MARASCO,

Claimant.

No. 12-CV-3973 MEJ

STIPULATION AND ORDER RE:
SCHEDULING OF CMC

The parties agree, subject to the Court's approval, that the case management conference ("CMC") be rescheduled for September 5, 2013. Unless it is rescheduled, the CMC is currently set for August 29, 2013.

The reason for the requested rescheduling is in order for (1) claimant to respond completely and fully without objection and under oath by August 28, 2013, to all outstanding interrogatories and requests for documents which the government served on him on March 1, 2013; and for (2) claimant

1 to provide by August 28, 2013, a verification for his responses to special interrogatories which he
2 served on the United States on September 19, 2012.

3 In their case management filed June 4, 2013, the parties agreed to resolve a discovery dispute
4 which arose because claimant failed to respond under oath to interrogatories and requests for 5 documents served on him on March 1, 2013. The parties agreed to have the Court order claimant
6 to respond on or before July 8, 2013 and to order that claimant waived his right to object to the 7 interrogatories and document requests. On June 5, 2013, the Court entered the parties' stipulated
8 order, and rescheduled the case management conference for August 29, 2013.

9 Claimant, who failed to comply with the Court order by responding on or before July 8, 2013,
10 still has not responded. When asked to meet and confer about claimant's failure's, counsel agreed
11 to meet on July 31, 2013. On July 31, 2013, before the meet and confer could take place, counsel
12 called to request another extension for claimant to respond to the interrogatories and documents
13 requests. According to his counsel, claimant is willing to respond fully, completely and under oath
14 to the pending interrogatories and requests for production of documents by August 28, 2013, and to 15 provide by August 28, 2013 the verification for responses to special interrogatories which claimant
16 served on the government on September 19, 2012.

17 Although the government does not agree to an extension, the government submits that it
18 makes more sense for the Court to hold the CMC on September 5, 2013 which makes the parties'
19 joint case management statement due on August 29, 2013 – after claimant has provided full and
